

Executive Advisory Board Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act Exemption Form

The author must complete this page before submitting the paper to the Business Support Office.

Publication

To demonstrate openness and transparency, all governance group papers will now be published on the website of Social Security Scotland. All governance group papers should be written in line with the Writing for Publication Guidance.

Papers which contain sensitive information which should not be published must set out the reasons why. The author must identify the relevant exemption which should apply. The exemption should be stated in the section below, with the reasoning for this decision. Please speak to the Data Protection and Information Governance team before submitting your paper if you are unsure which exemption may apply.

1. I am aware that this paper may be published in the public domain and I am content for the information to be published.
2. I believe information in this paper should be withheld from publication and that an exemption applies.

2.1. Please state the exemption and explain your reasoning:

Redactions of personal details of those below Senior Civil Service have been made. Subject to those redactions, the paper can be published.

An exemption under section 30(b)(ii) of FOISA (free and frank exchange of views) applies to some of the information.

35(1)(a) All of the exemptions above apply to content which has been redacted, as it is sensitive information on our defences which could be exploited to enable fraud, or which is the subject of formation of policy.

38(1)(b)– to redact the names of staff not within the Senior Civil Service

Paper Summary for Website Publication (max 100 words)

Report summarises the findings from the internal audit of Social Security Scotland's Case Transfer Audit.

Paper authors should write a short paragraph here to summarise the content of the paper.
