Publication

To demonstrate openness and transparency, all governance group papers will now be published on the website of Social Security Scotland. All governance group papers should be written in line with the Writing for Publication Guidance.

Papers which contain sensitive information which should not be published must set out the reasons why. The author must identify the relevant exemption which should apply. The exemption should be stated in the section below, with the reasoning for this decision. Please speak to the Data Protection and Information Governance team before submitting your paper if you are unsure which exemption may apply.

1. I am aware that this paper may be published in the public domain and I am content for the information to be published.

2. I believe information in this paper should be withheld from publication and that an exemption applies.

2.1. Please state the exemption and explain your reasoning:

We have exempted a short piece of information under section 30(c) of the Freedom of Information Act (Prejudice to effective conduct of public affairs) Disclosing this information would prejudice our ability to effectively finalise our equality outcomes. Information of such a nature must be considered in the context of the wider decision we need to make in this area and release may raise speculative scenarios that have yet to take shape and may or may not materialise, for consideration by management
