

Executive Advisory Body

Date of Meeting	Tuesday 5 October 2021
Subject	Overview of compliance with the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002
Agenda No.	Below the Line
Paper No.	25.5
Prepared By	[Redacted]
Purpose	Monitor

1. Purpose

- 1.1 The purpose of this paper is to provide the Executive Advisory Body with an overview of the requests for information that we have received in period from June to August 2021. It also sets out our compliance with the statutory timescales for responding. Compliance with the timescales contributes to our values of dignity, fairness and respect by demonstrating transparency and assisting individuals to exercise their right to information.

2. Key points

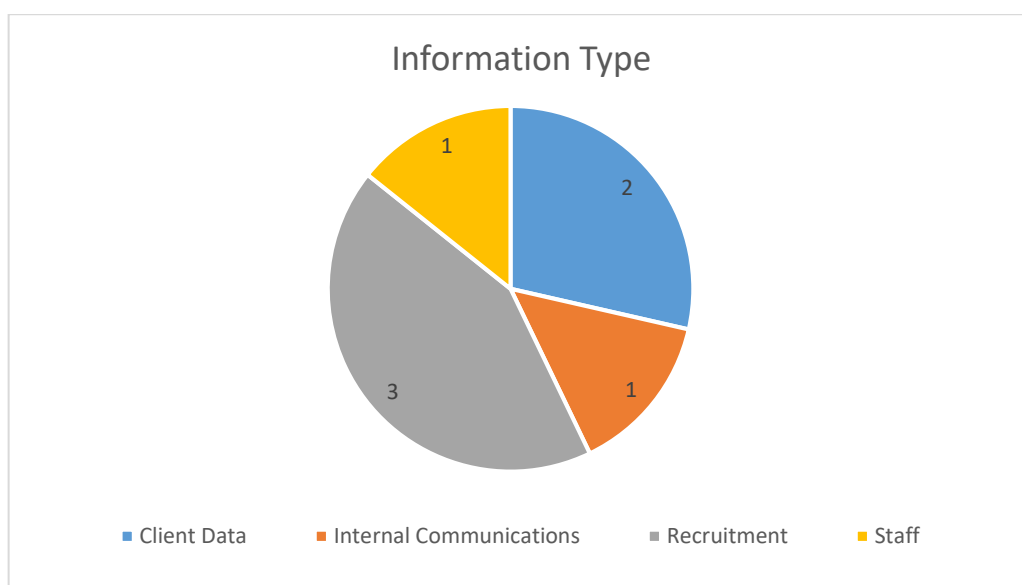

- 2.1 Since 1 June 2021 Social Security Scotland has received seven new requests for information. Since the last report seven responses have been issued. One of the requests was received in June, four in July and two in August.

2.2 The Scottish Information Commissioner monitors public authorities compliance with the Act. The information provided to the Commissioner includes compliance with the statutory timescales for response which is 20 working days. As agreed with the Scottish Information Commissioner, core Scottish Government and its agencies have a target of responding to 95% of requests within the timescales afforded by the Act. Social Security Scotland has exceeded this target with an on-time response rate of 100% since the last report.

A monthly performance breakdown is provided in Annex A.

2.3 We record the type of information requested and the requester in order to identify patterns and inform decisions on proactive publication of information.

One of the seven requests received in the period specified was submitted by a political researcher, two were from staff and four were from members of the public.

- 2.4 Of the seven responses issued, information was disclosed in full in two requests and in part in two requests. Information was not disclosed in three requests. Notices applied were Section 12 and Section 18 of the Act. The exemptions applied to withhold information were Section 25(1), Section 27(1) and Section 38(1)(b). Details of notices and exemptions can be found in Annex B

- 2.5 No requests for review were received or responded to.
- 2.6 In light of the information requested by applicants a decision has been taken to proactively publish within 12 weeks, the agenda, accompanying papers and minutes of the Executive Advisory Board and the Audit and Assurance Committee. These can be found here:

- 2.7 We have not been notified of any applications to the Scottish Information Commissioner since the last report.

3. Conclusions

The Executive Advisory Body are invited to note the contents of this paper.

FOI Exemptions

Annex B

Notices commonly applied by Social Security Scotland are:

- Section 12(exceeds the upper cost limit): allows a public authority to refuse to deal with a request where it estimates that it would exceed £600.
- Section 14(1)(request is vexatious): Sometimes a request may be so patently unreasonable or objectionable that it will obviously be vexatious, it can only be applied to the request itself and not the individual who submitted it.
- Section(17)(information not held): the public authority does not have access to the information requested or the information does not exist.
- Section 18(1) refusal to confirm or deny whether information is held.

Exemptions commonly applied by Social Security Scotland are:

- Section 25(1)(information otherwise accessible): This allows information to be withheld if it is already accessible to the applicant.
- Section 27(1)(information intended for future publication): This allows information to be withheld if the information intended for publication within 12 weeks of the request being submitted.
- Section 29(1)(a)(formulation of Scottish Government policy): This allows information to be withheld if the information relates to the formulation or development of government policy and ministerial communications.
- Section 30(b)(i)(free and frank provision of advice): This allows information to be withheld if disclosure of the information would, or would be likely to, cause substantial harm.
- Section 30(b)(ii)(free and frank exchange of views): This allows information to be withheld if disclosure of the information would, or would be likely to, cause substantial harm.
- Section 33(1)(b)(commercial interests): This allows information to be withheld where it relates to the audit of the accounts of other public authorities, or the examination of the economy, efficiency and effectiveness with which other public authorities use their resources in discharging their functions.

- Section 38(1)(b)(personal data relating to third party): This allows information to be withheld if it personal data.

Qualified exemptions

Most of these exemptions are subject to the public interest test. These are known as “qualified exemptions.”

Where a qualified exemption applies, the information must be disclosed unless the public interest in disclosing the information is outweighed by the public interest in maintaining the exemption. Where the competing public interests are evenly balanced, the information should be disclosed.

Absolute exemptions

Exemptions which are not subject to the public interest test are known as “absolute exemptions.”

Where an absolute exemption applies, a public authority is entitled to withhold the information without going on to consider the public interest. They include:

Information Otherwise Accessible - Section 25

Prohibitions on Disclosure - Section 26
