Audit and Assurance Committee Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act Exemption Form

The author must complete this page before submitting the paper to the Business Support Office.

Publication

To demonstrate openness and transparency, all governance group papers will now be published on the website of Social Security Scotland. All governance group papers should be written in line with the Writing for Publication Guidance.

Papers which contain sensitive information which should not be published must set out the reasons why. The author must identify the relevant exemption which should apply. The exemption should be stated in the section below, with the reasoning for this decision. Please speak to the Data Protection and Information Governance team before submitting your paper if you are unsure which exemption may apply.

1. I am aware that this paper may be published in the public domain and I am content for the information to be published. ☐

2. I believe information in this paper should be withheld from publication and that an exemption applies. ☒

    2.1. Please state the exemption and explain your reasoning:

29 The exemption above applied to content which has been redacted due to the detail relating to the formation of policy 35(1)(a) The exemption above applies to content which has been redacted, in the main in relation to sensitive information in relation to our defences which could be exploited to enable fraud. 38(1)b – to redact the names of staff not within the Senior Civil Service

Paper Summary for Website Publication (max 100 words)

This paper summarises activities undertaken within counter fraud, error correction and debt management teams within Social Security Scotland for the September 2022 Audit and Assurance Committee

Paper authors should write a short paragraph here to summarise the content of the paper.